RUSSELL'S RULES OF ORDER

Purpose of Russell's Rules of Order:

A. MINORITY VOICE —All Members Have Equal Opportunities to Voice Opinions;

B. MAJORITY VOTE —- Efficiency in Process to Make Decisions;

Role of the President (Bishop) to balance these objectives.

Basic Rules of Order:

- Must be recognized before speaking;
- Address the Bishop/President of the Convention as “Right Reverend Sir”
- No motion may be presented without a second;
- Should identify yourself by name, congregation and position (for/against) before speaking;
- Speeches should be limited to two minutes;
- No individual should speak more than 2x to any question; Not 2x before others have an opportunity to speak once

HOW AM I RECOGNIZED?

HOW TO MAKE A MOTION:

after being recognized . . .

DELEGATE: Right Reverend Sir, my name is Thack Dyson. I am a clergy delegate from St. Paul's Daphne and I move that each fall we replace the word "Alleluia" in our services with "Roll Tide!"

HOW TO ADDRESS CONVENTION:

BISHOP: For what reason does the Delegate rise?

DELEGATE: Right Reverend Sir, My name is Skip Snow. I am a Lay Delegate from St. Christopher's Pensacola and I rise to speak in opposition to the motion.

BISHOP: War Eagle Skip! Please proceed.

Points of Privilege or Information:

Must be recognized—or call out to be recognized;

May be used for information or clarification of any matter under consideration;

May be used for personal privilege—request to be excused from the Convention;

May be used to request prayer before important action—Chaplain beware;

May be utilized for any other purpose that does not constitute Bad Decorum

HOW SHOULD WE ACT OR DECORUM:

Behavior or conduct of a Delegate in the Context of a Convention. Decorum may be characterized as “good” or “bad”

Examples of Good Decorum:

Being recognized before speaking;

Addressing your comments to the President—
not other Deputies or the Body;

Making Comments related only to the matter at hand and when you have something new to say;

Identifying yourself by name, congregation and position (for/against) before speaking;

Listening respectfully to all speakers;

Examples of Bad Decorum:

- Speaking without being recognized;
- Speaking over the President or other Delegates;
- Making Comments unrelated to the matter at hand;
- Repeating comments that have already been said;
- Repeating comments that have already been said;
- Applauding Comments or Votes;
- Trying to Speak more than twice in any debate;
- Using the Rules of Order to Manipulate or Frustrate the work of Convention;

SPECIAL RULES & VOTING

Special Rules of Order for the Convention:

Individual comments are limited to 2 minutes;

The President may recognize people out of order to ensure that minority opinions are heard;

Voting shall be by voice and if necessary by use of red & green cards;

Rules for a Vote by Orders may be found in the Convention Rules;

Special Rules of Election may be employed to ensure that positions are filled efficiently;

Special Rules of Order for the Convention:

Special Rule for Elections:

If, after the second ballot, all open positions are not filled by majority vote, then on the third and next succeeding ballots, there shall be retained only twice the number of nominees as there are unfilled positions, said nominees to be taken from those receiving the highest number of votes, until, by majority vote, a nominee is elected.

We Believe

WE BELIEVE....

that Camp Beckwith is holy ground and a safe place to be real;
that the summer camp staff is the best ever and they help us see God.

WE BELIEVE....

that summer is the best time of the year and rain is not so bad;
that God had a bad day when He made yellow flies and mosquitos;
And we believe in dinosaurs.

WE BELIEVE....

that all people have the same rights, and we do mean all.

WE BELIEVE.....

in equality,

and in the right to choose,

and that God's sacraments are for everyone.

WE BELIEVE....

that laughter is good for the soul;

that miracles can and do happen;

and that once saved, always saved.

WE BELIEVE....

that there is love in the world;
that friendship is romance;
in general respect;
and that nobody deserves to suffer.

WE BELIEVE....

in loyalty;
that peace is obtainable;
in coexistence;
and in karma.

WE BELIEVE...

in God and that God knows everything.
We don't know how, but we believe it.

WE BELIEVE....

in Jesus and that he is alive.
We believe in the power of prayer.
We hope for happiness,
and we believe that we are going to heaven.

WE BELIEVE that we are blessed and beautiful.
We believe in love.
