Celebrate the Power of Love this Epiphany with the Evangelism Task Force

November 12, 2018 | David Chatel

There is a new focus group in the Diocese of the Central Gulf Coast, and it's all about Evangelism. Led by the Rev. Kammy Young, canon missionary for development, the DioCGC Evangelism Task Force is made up of lay and ordained leaders from across the Central Gulf Coast. They have joined together to serve as catalysts and encouragers in an effort to equip the diocese for this essential ministry. While Christians have held the re...

We NEED you to come to our dinner party
 Saturday, January 5th 6pm
 Brabham House

We'll feed you a delicious free dinner. In exchange we are going to ask you to share your stories of your experience of love. We want to experiment our church is doing to hear the voice and perspective of people outside the church.

Belmont-DeVilliers, Potluck to celebrate neighborhood diversity
 January 8, 2019
 Belmont-DeVilliers neighborhood gathering aims to bring neighbors together over food and storytelling
 Residents of Pensacola's historic Belmont-DeVilliers neighborhood don't have to travel to New York City to visit the United Nations; it's right in their own community.

Where do they go to school?

Do they have kids?

What are their names?

Where do they work?

Are they happy?

How can I help them?

Who is my Neighbor?

Do they know Jesus?

How can I pray for them?

Beloved, let us love one another, because love is from God;
everyone who loves is born of God and knows God.
